Dear Alan,

On the eve of your retirement from the Navy, I would like to take this opportunity to convey my personal thanks for the excellent job you have done for us here in the Central Intelligence Agency, your last post. It has been a great pleasure having you with us, and I wish you would feel free to let me know if and when we can be of assistance to you.

Joining your many friends, I extend very best wishes for all the happiness you so richly deserve in your retired life. The exceptional record you have made in the Service should be a source of great satisfaction to you and may I offer sincere congratulations for a job well done.

The best of luck to you, and every good wish for a Happy New Year, believe me,

Sincerely,

R. H. MILLENKOTTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central
